Il Tempo

Welcome to Il Tempo (The Times), the Newsletter of the Barony of Ponte Alto, one of the northern baronies in the Kingdom of Atlantia.

Il Tempo strives to be an informative read that you look forward to. To this end, we are always appreciative of any contributions to it, perhaps an article of a project you are working on or are interested in, how to make/play a period game, your experience at an event, how/what to prepare for a day trip, a recipe/ piece of garb that you've made, documentation on an item you've completed - a how to on documentation, a few words on a historical person/event, photos, a book review, something to share with a newcomer - perhaps a short autobiography of your persona or how you came to figure out your persona.

The list can go on for ages - only limited by the speed at which our hands can write out what our minds can think of.

Come, share with us adventures in the great Barony of Ponte Alto, in the grand Kingdom of Atlantia, in this - the current Middle Ages!

Revenge of the Stitch: Plague Edition

A report from Baroness Marie-Therese who participated in an online Revenge of the Stitch event. We hope you enjoy reading!

Revenge of the Stitch: the Plague Edition

April 24-26

This year I participated in an online event called Revenge of the Stitch: the Plague Edition. It was based on the event that happens every year around this time with a couple of differences:

- ◆ It was online
- ◆ It was 48 hours (beginning on Friday April 24 th at 5pm and ending at 5pm on April 26 th)
- ◆ We did not have to submit documentation (although you could)
- ◆ And, everything was just for fun with prizes awarded for participation and most heart.

Knowing that, and with a project desperately in need of finalizing, I jumped in feet first with my Butterfly Gambeson.

I posted the following pictures for the beginning check in time at 5pm Friday. Then I closed my computer around 7pm and sewed my heart out until 11:14pm that evening.

Overall view of my Gambeson and what work I had already accomplished. (the front left panel and left arm a third of the way down were done-ish)

The next morning Saturday, April 25th around 10am I posted my progress on the sleeve and was able to post that I'd almost reached the end of it, a few more hours and I was done.

Sewing all day Sunday, I was able to move from the left shoulder, to the upper back of the gambeson.

By 5pm that evening when I checked in for the final time, I could only claim to have finished at a diagonal about a quarter to a half of the back panel. At that point I had to acknowledge that I was not going to finish the Gambeson. I was very proud of the work I had done but it was nowhere near what I could have done had I been focused only on the gambeson. However, I made progress, which was one of my goals in competing, and I got to see a lot of skilled individuals create amazing art in the 48 hours we had to work on our projects.

So not all was lost, and I had a really good time!

Heavy Practice @ Home

Some video links from Baroness Marie-Therese to help keep you busy and in shape while at home! Enjoy!

Hello All,

Here are good YouTube links for heavy combatants and pell training.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Yx7ANUm1OS0>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GkJ7lvYvfPg>

Hello all throughout our confinement. I thought it would be a good idea to send out links on articles I've found online to keep people interested in the Heavy fighting community. Our Knight Marshal and our Archery Noyon are already doing things within the Rapier and Archery communities to keep their participants interested and so I thought with me being a heavy fighter this would be the perfect opportunity for the Heavies to share knowledge about what we've found online, what we can do in our home space, and what we've been thinking about doing within the Heavy fighter community.

The two links above are really good Pell work training videos, but they are by no means the only ones. Duke Dietrich Von Stroheim of Atlantia has a slew of them, Duke University has a slew, SCA West Kingdom Fighter Training. Try them all but do what makes you happy and doesn't hurt your body. There is never too much information, only too much to take in at one time.

Here are a few more links that are good:

We really could use your help

There are several positions in our Barony that could use a Deputy; actually, all of the positions that we have could benefit by having at least one deputy.

Why a Deputy? Well, it is easy for any one of us to intend to do something if we don't take into account that the SCA is what we do with our time after we are finished doing what we do to pay the bills.

With deputies, the work load can be shared, allowing more work to be accomplished with less time and stress for any one individual.

Besides, it is a great way to work with others to do something different to help make your, and other's, SCA experience that much better!

Looking for a way to get involved?

Why not try retaining!

What is retaining?

Their Excellencies need help with taking notes (e.g. for gifts or to-do stuff), staying hydrated, reminders to stay on schedule, fetching things, and otherwise keeping Their Excellencies comfortable and out of trouble (especially the Mongol one)!

Who can retain?

Anyone can retain! If you've got free time at an event, Their Excellencies will be very appreciative of your assistance. Plus it's a great way to learn more about what it means to be part of the pageantry of the SCA!

If you are interested in volunteering, or even just finding out more, reach out to our head retainer, Diego Díaz de Oviedo at headretainer@pontealto.atlantia.sca.org
