IL TEMPO

Welcome to Il Tempo (The Times), the Newsletter of the Barony of Ponte Alto, one of the northern baronies in the Kingdom of Atlantia.

Il Tempo strives to be an informative read that you look forward to. To this end, we are always appreciative of any contributions to it, perhaps an article of a project you are working on or are interested in, how to make/play a period game, your experience at an event, how/what to prepare for a day trip, a recipe/piece of garb that you've made, documentation on an item you've completed - a how to on documentation, a few words on a historical person/event, photos, a book review, something to share with a newcomer - perhaps a short autobiography of your persona or how you came to figure out your persona.

The list can go on for ages - only limited by the speed at which our hands can write out what our minds can think of.

Come, share with us adventures in the great Barony of Ponte Alto, in the grand Kingdom of Atlantia, in this - the current Middle Ages!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, PONTE ALTO!

By Lisbet of Spinning Winds

Albrecht Durer's 1514 print Melancholia I includes an arithmetic magic square featuring that year. On the wall behind the Melancholia's wings, 1514 is centered on the lowest row of the 4x4 grid of numbers. (The full engraving is on another page.) On February 29 Anno Societatus 26, Niall McKennett and Teleri Talgellawg were invested as the first Baron and Baroness of Ponte Alto. In honor of that day, here's a magic square featuring 29,26.

In Durer's square, the sum of any four squares in a row, column, or diagonal is 34. Ponte Alto's square sums to 182. Can you find other ways to sum to the magic number? (See answers on another page.)

32	65	62	23	→ 182

ANSWERS: Unless I missed a few, there are 40 distinct ways to choose 4 boxes that sum to the magic number.

Each quadrant of the magic square sums to 182.

ART SPOTLIGHT: GIBBONS IN A LANDSCAPE

Sesson Shūkei 雪村周継, Japanese, ca. 1570

From the Met's website:

Japanese Zen monks treasured pictures of gibbons painted by the Chinese monk-painter Muqi (active ca. 1250–80), which Muqi's colleagues first carried to Japan in the late thirteenth century. By the late fifteenth century, images of the animals in the manner of Muqi had become a favored subject for large-scale painting programs.

In this pair of screens, showing a uniquely Japanese interpretation of Muqi's style, a chain of gibbons tries to grasp the reflection of the moon in the water below – a futile effort that in Zen signifies the delusions of the unawakened mind. Sesson, a learned and prolific Zen monk-artist, studied a wide array of earlier Chinese ink styles and played a major role in the development of a distinctive Japanese form of Zen-inspired ink painting.

WE REALLY COULD USE YOUR HELP!

There are several positions in our Barony that could use a Deputy; actually, all of the positions that we have could benefit by having at least one deputy.

Why a Deputy? Well, it is easy for any one of us to intend to do something if we don't consider that the SCA is what we do with our time after we are finished doing what we do to pay the bills.

With deputies, the workload can be shared, allowing more work to be accomplished with less time and stress for any one individual.

Besides, it is a great way to work with others to do something different to help make yours, and others', SCA experience that much better!
